Life and Times of John Wesley. This week has been a very busy one for the 150 participants assisting in Mrs. H. E. Monroe's entertainment to be given for the Zane street Methodist church at the opera house September 16 and 17. The cast is now complete and the remaining rehearsals will fit all taking part to give an excellent rendition of the programs. The role of John Wesley is well taken by Mr. Bentley Jones. He enters into the spirit of the scene and is equal to every emergency. The Vicar of Sheffield (Mr. Robert Darrah), with his queer witness falls to convince the judge, Mr. Marmaduke Gwynn (Judge Chamberlain), that the Wesleyans have too much religion. The role of Charles Wesley, the sweet singer, is taken by Mr. E. Elson Brewster, and George Whitefield by Prof. O. Doehn.

GOV. BUSHNELL

Has Promised to Attend Wheeling Reunion Next Year.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY MAY COME

As a Pressing Invitation is to be Extended by the Committee, which will Hold Its Meeting Next Week—The Indications are for a Great Gathering of Veterans. A Tribute to General Kelly, an Old Wheeling Citizen.

Now that Wheeling has secured the next encampment of the Society of the Army of West Virginia, there is general rejoicing, especially among those who were interested in the movement, and next week there will be a meeting held to take preliminary steps toward the arrangements for the reunion. There is no doubt that the reunion will be a big thing for Wheeling, and all the accommodations will be taxed to the limit. Among the distinguished visitors it is not unlikely that President McKinley will figure.

Col. Morris Horkheimer, speaking of the affair yesterday, said that Governor Bushnell and his staff had been particularly kind and attentive to Governor Atkinson and staff and Ohio's chief executive promised to return the visit next year. Said he:

"I am coming to the Wheeling reunion whether I am governor or have an 'ex' in front of the title. One thing certain, I will be there. However, I'm nearly as certain that I'll come as governor with my staff."

At the Columbus reunion, Comrade Walker paid a glowing tribute to the late General B. F. Kelly, once a citizen of Wheeling. There was a touching tribute to the memory and zealous service of that ardent upholder of the cause of right in West Virginia when the state was yet hanging in the balance. Indebted to his martial career the following was offered as to the personality of the man: "Our comrade, General Benjamin Franklin Kelly, major general United States volunteers, was born in New Hampton, N. H., April 10, 1807. At the age of 16 years he settled in Wheeling, W. Va. and later was engaged in business as a merchant until 1851, when he became the agent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at Philadelphia. He was a graduate of Partridge Military academy, and for twenty years or more was identified prominently with the Virginia uniformed militia, attaining the rank of colonel, and later was engaged in the Virginia regiment. For brilliant achievements he was made a brevet major general of volunteers August 15, 1864. He continued to serve his country until the close of the war. After the war he was appointed collector of internal revenue for the district of West Virginia. In 1876 he became superintendent of the Hot Springs reservation, Arkansas, and examiner of pensions in 1883. General Kelly in person was a man of medium height, comparatively and proportionately well built, a large and well-poised head, with dark hair falling in waving ringlets about his neck and a face that beamed with intelligence, kindness and cordiality. Unostentatious, yet stern and dignified in his military bearing, courteous, affable and approachable at all times. He died July 16, 1891, aged 84 years. At his death he was the eldest major general of the Union army in the entire country. He sleeps in the beautiful and silent Arlington.

EVERYTHING READY

For the State Council of the Jr. O. U. A. M. in this City Next Week.

The committee on entertaining the state council of the Jr. O. U. A. M., which convenes here next week, has about completed its work, and the large gathering is expected to be handled without a hitch. The council opens Tuesday, continuing until Friday. The most interesting features of a public nature will be Tuesday's big parade and outing at Wheeling park.

Everything is in readiness for this event. Four brass bands will head the local councils, which are expected to muster their entire membership, and in addition to visiting delegates, a number of councils from the surrounding country are expected to be in line. At the conclusion of the parade the next step will be the move on to the park. Just before taking the motors, Acting Mayor Chew will deliver the address of welcome at the city hall. Amusements of all kinds will be at the park. Citizens are asked to decorate their homes and places of business Tuesday. The sessions of the state council will be held at Odd Fellows' hall. The general headquarters will be at the Stamm.

Do We Need Big Muscles?

By no means. Persons of herculean build frequently possess a minimum of genuine vigor, and exhibit less endurance than very small people. Real vigor means the ability to digest and sleep well, and to perform a reasonable amount of daily physical and mental labor without unnatural fatigue. It is because a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters enables the enfeebled dyspeptic to resume the allotted activity of every day life, as well as to participate without discomfort in its pleasures, that it is such a pre-eminent useful medicine.

NOTICE TO PARENTS.

School Children often injure their eyes for life by parents neglecting to attend to them. Crossed eyes, headaches and many other troubles come from weak eyes strained while at school. If your child has weak eyes attend to them at once while the child is young and the eyes can be strengthened. Perhaps it may only require glasses for a short time.

We are specialists in children's eye troubles. Bring your child to us. No charge for consultation or examination.
